

Anticipatory Prescribing for Patients in last weeks or days of life due to any diagnosis including COVID – Community setting

Secondary care will process rapid discharge of patients to home setting for terminal care with Just in case medications in line with this guidance